What Comes Next: A Professional Development Plan Workshop (1.5 PDUs)

Tuesday, March 18, 2025 | 6:00pm – 7:30pm | Virtual

Presenter: Becky Crouch, OTD, OTR/L

Professional development never stops. Do you know what you want next in your career? Do you have professional goals? This workshop will help you determine where you are now and what's next.

Using strategies based on the Kawa and Person-Environment-Occupation-Performance (PEOP) models, attendees will:

- Utilize self-reflection techniques and tools to identify their strengths, values, and skills.
- Understand how to utilize their strengths, values, and skills to their advantage within their careers and during times of transition.
- Identify at least three short-term goals.
- Identify at least three long-term goals.
- Understand the importance of accountability and mentorship in helping them achieve their goals.

Who Should Attend: While designed for students and recent graduates, this workshop offers valuable insights for practitioners at any stage. Topics include navigating fieldwork, job transitions, resume development, interview preparation, and establishing mentor relationships.

REGISTRATION FORM One form per person. Please type or print clearly.

About Our Presenter

ABOUT OUR PRESENTER

Becky Crouch, OTD, OTR/L, is an occupational therapy practitioner with over 20 years of clinical experience. She has spent all that time in pediatrics including outpatient and school-based settings.

Crouch was responsible for the student placement program in her workplace for several years, working with practitioners and OT/OTA programs to facilitate level I and II fieldwork students. She has a passion for the occupational therapy profession and believes that fieldwork education is a valuable experience for the practitioner as well as the student. Crouch currently works in a school-based setting and is an adjunct instructor in the occupational therapy assistant program at Clovis Community College. She previously served in on the OTAC the Board of Directors as the Region 4 Director and is a recipient of the OTAC Fieldwork Educator Award.
