ABOUT OUR PRESENTATION

A Walk in My Shoes: Insights from a Fellow Occupational Therapy Assistant (1 PDU)

Objectives:

- Identify state and national occupational therapy assistant leadership opportunities.
- Discuss the importance and benefits of membership, mentorship, and professional networking in state and national associations for occupational therapy assistants.
- Discuss current trends and opportunities for occupational therapy assistants in practice and in professional associations.

ABOUT OUR PRESENTER

Andre Johnson, MS
OTR/L (WA), COTA/L (FL), ROH, has been an occupational therapy assistant for 14 years and has recently become an occupational therapist. His clinical background is in his preferred settings of pediatrics and orthopedics, but he additionally has experience in academia, short-term rehab, and skill nursing facilities. Johnson is dedicated to the profession and is intensely involved in leadership roles, both in the state of Florida as well as nationally and internationally via professional associations such as the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA) as a member of its Board of Directors and with B.R.O.T.H.A.S. in occupational therapy as a vice president.

About MyOTLicense. MyOTLicense is a secure, cloud-based, easy-to-use virtual information and management tracking tool to help occupational therapy practitioners manage their professional information: licenses, certificates, memberships, professional development. You can think of MyOTLicense as your professional virtual electronic filing cabinet.

About OTAC. OTAC is a nonprofit, 501c6. This means that end-of-year net revenue is retained for operations and benefit of the members and is not distributed to private owners. It is governed by an elected, noncompensated Board of Directors and hires a professional association management team.

OTAC Mission Statement. OTAC is the collective voice that serves, promotes, and supports the profession of occupational therapy and its practitioners.
