PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

IN PURSUIT OF THE VISION: PROUD HISTORY. LIMITLESS FUTURE.

Dear Conference Participant:

Welcome to Pasadena for a grand celebration of our 40th Annual Conference and to kick off the final countdown to the 2017 Tournament of Roses® Parade! Whatever else you may refer to her as—The City of Roses, The Crown City, The 'Dena—she is a wonderful place to visit to reconnect with colleagues, recharge your professional interests and learning, and to celebrate 40 successful years of our vibrant state association.

Our Conference theme this year marks the conclusion of a multi-year initiative we referred to as “In pursuit of the vision.” This, of course, was in alignment with our own state association vision statement and Vision 2017 at the national level. We now gather together very near the arrival of 2017, our profession's grand centennial. At this Conference you will hear from multiple presenters and leaders what's next for our profession's endeavors into and beyond 2017!

We welcome AOTA President, Amy Lamb, as our Friday keynote speaker. She will inspire us to embrace our distinct value through a resurgence of authentic practice. Head on over to the grand opening of the exhibit hall where many exciting opportunities for employment and resources await you!

Please join us for a special edition of the President's Reception on Saturday night when we will hold “40 and Fabulous”—a celebration of OTAC's hallmark achievements over the last four decades. Let's make it a party to remember! Sunday's keynote brings Erik Johnson (@OTUnleashed), chief medical officer for Operation Supply Drop, to our annual business meeting, which will be held in the morning this year. We are excited about this opportunity as we will kick off our final day with his message on personal greatness, leaving the lunchtime free for networking on topics of interest by practice area at the OT Practice Café/Lunch for just $18.

Celebrate your colleagues receiving awards for their achievements on Friday just prior to the keynote. Engage in mind-body and healthy living activities on Friday and Saturday mornings. Alumni receptions and your good friends and colleagues await your arrival to get caught up! Historically significant moments and opportunities will also be unveiled in the exhibit hall—you won't want to miss them.

Attend, engage, post, tweet, share—be a part of the 40th Annual Conference!

About the Awards Luncheon and Symposium

Recipients of the 2016 CFOT scholarships, research grants, and awards will be announced at the annual CFOT Awards Luncheon and Symposium on Friday, October 28, 11:30am–1:00pm. Following presentation of the awards, attendees will experience a stimulating address by Lela Llorens, PhD, OTR/ret, FAOTA, this year's CFOT Honored Lecturer. CFOT will also be announcing the new Chuck Strauch Scholarship.

Honored Lecturer

Implementing Occupations for Health and Wellbeing: A Personal Story

Lela Llorens, PhD, OTR/ret, FAOTA, will describe the implementation of occupations for health and wellbeing as a personal story. As an occupational therapy practitioner, the principal beginning of where one finds oneself, setting objectives, and designing a path to achieve those objectives is a natural outgrowth of personal and professional knowledge and experience. The journey toward balancing work, play, leisure, education, and self-care in retirement and widowhood will be presented as Chapter Three.

Llorens was the CFOT Honored Lecturer in 1985. The CFOT Board of Directors has invited her to return in honor of the 35th anniversary of the Foundation. She has received prestigious honors that include the AOTA Award of Merit, the Eleanor Clark Slagle Lectureship, the Roster of Fellows, the A. Jean Ayres Award, and the Meritorious Award from the AOTF. She is a recipient of the AOTA and AOTF President's Commendation as well as a recipient of the OTAC Lifetime Achievement Award.

Humanitarian of the Year

John Hwang, OTR/L

John Hwang, OTR/L, is an occupational therapy practitioner who works with individuals on Skid Row (an area of Downtown Los Angeles). His work consists of meeting and building relationships with people on Skid Row and making himself available to care for them in any way he can. He photographs those who give him permission and he posts the photos and their stories on www.skidrowstories.com, a website he developed. He brings compassion, respect, and dignity to each person's unique circumstance. From his website, Hwang writes, "I started heading out to Skid Row without an agenda, plan or idea ... I just simply wanted to build relationships with the people there and make myself available to care for them in whatever way I can. I don't go there thinking I'm a savior or I'm going to fix their problems. I go as a learner, a servant, as an equal, as a friend." When Hwang is not connecting with people living near the Skid Row area, he visits Los Angeles area animal shelters, where he takes pictures of dogs awaiting homes and posts those photos to facilitate adoption. His work with people and animals embodies the humanitarian ideals this award celebrates.

Join CFOT Board members (left to right) Michele Berro and Bonita Kraft, and CFOT President Linda Florey, at the CFOT Silent Auction booth on the OTAC Exhibit Hall floor to bid on fun and interesting items. All proceeds are used to support scholarships and research grants.

CFOT SILENT AUCTION – COME BID!

The CFOT booth in the OTAC Exhibit Hall will be buzzing with activity. Your support is encouraged and appreciated. CFOT annually awards thousands of dollars for scholarships and research grants. Help CFOT meet, and exceed, its goal.
